

YEAR 6 WRITING ASSESSMENT FRAMEWORK

Pupil name:		Class and year:	Evidence and notes
C o r e T a r g e t s	I can write effectively for a range of purposes and audiences, selecting language that shows good awareness of the reader (e.g. the use of the first person in a diary; direct address in instructions and persuasive writing) *Drawing on wider reading as an influence on their writing style is push for GD
	I can select vocabulary and grammatical structures that reflect what the writing requires, doing this mostly appropriately (e.g. using contracted forms in dialogues in a narrative; using passive verbs to affect how information is presented; using modal verbs to suggest degrees of possibility) *Managing shifts extremely effectively between levels of formality is push for GD
	I can use a range of devices to build cohesion (e.g. conjunctions, adverbials of time and place, pronouns, synonyms, conditional phrases) within and across paragraphs
	I can use verb tenses consistently and correctly throughout their writing
	I can use the range of punctuation taught at KS2 mostly correctly (e.g. capital letters, full stops, question marks, exclamation marks, commas for clarity, apostrophes for contractions and possession, and semi-colons and colons where appropriate). *Mindful application of this punctuation to enhance the clarity of writing is push for GD
	I can describe settings, characters and atmosphere in narratives
	I can integrate dialogue in narratives to convey character and advance the action *Distinguishing between the language of speech and writing and choosing the appropriate register is push for GD
	I can spell correctly most words from the year 5/year 6 spelling list and use a dictionary to check the spelling of uncommon or more ambitious vocabulary
	I can maintain legibility in joined handwriting when writing at speed
S u p p o r t i n g	I can independently plan and develop my ideas for writing, drawing on research and experiences.
	I can proofread, edit and re-draft my work independently during the writing process.
	I can organise my work appropriately for the text type, keeping my reader firmly in mind (for example, paragraphs, headings and bullet points)
	I can make some correct use of semi-colons, dashes and colons to mark the boundary between independent clauses
	I can mostly use hyphens correctly to avoid ambiguity
	I can use subordinate and relative clauses, varying their position in the sentence, and mostly correctly using correct punctuation
	I can use passive verbs to affect the presentation of information in a sentence
	I can express degrees of possibility using modal verbs and adverbs
	I can use expanded noun phrases to add detail, qualification and precision, including the selection of appropriate synonyms
	I can use preposition phrases to add detail, qualification and precision
	I can use adverbs to add detail, qualification and precision
	I can use the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause
	I can précis longer passages (for example, summarising key points in concluding paragraphs).
	I can spell the -fer words correctly when suffixes are added e.g. refer to referring. I can spell words correctly ending in cial and tial, e.g. official, confidential.
I can choose correctly between -ance and -ence e.g. assistance and obedience. I can choose correctly between -ant and -ent, e.g. expectant and innocent.
I can choose correctly between -cious and -tious e.g. conscious and ambitious.
